PRESS

"Cutler's music harkens back to a simpler time, blending rock, folk and pop and taking cues from classic artists like Pink Floyd, the Beatles and the good old '90s alt-rock of his childhood."

- NY Magazine / Bedford+Bowery

"Veers towards the Pink Floyd pop of the "Wish You Were Here" years"

- The Deli, NYC

"Both delicate and intense, offering the weight of indie-rock alongside a much softer, folk-like, acoustic ambiance"

- Stereo Stickman

"Contemplative, hypnotic."

- Greenpointers NYC

"Ryan Adams meets Pink Floyd...kick ass"

- RARAs Farms Music Blog

ABOUT

"Bring Closer the Distance" tells more vulnerable, personal stories. Including a tribute to his stepmother, (in a song called "Judy") who disappeared from his life when he was twenty one years old.

TRACKS

"Oceanside" is a hypnotically percussive mystical rocker. Its intensity provides the foundation for musings about the solace that mother nature provides him during times of intense tribulation. In short, the ocean has a healing power.

"Brain Place" is an epic indie-rock gem that addresses how overwhelming today's world can be. Feels like we're "eternally bored" while "the media screams and spits in the fire". Only our "Brainplace" can keep us sane.

BIO

Originally a Tampa, FL native, Dru Cutler now lives in Brooklyn, NY where he converted a giant warehouse into a live music venue and recording space called Unit J (www.UnitJBushwick.com).
